Work Related Learning Policy

Work Related Learning Policy

Work Related Learning (WRL) is defined as any planned activity that uses the context of work to develop knowledge, skills and understanding useful in work, including learning through the experience of work, learning about work and working practices and learning the skills for work (WRL, QCA Guidance 2017).

WRL is a statutory requirement for all KS4 students.

Purpose

To maximise the benefits for every student in the development of the whole school approach to work related learning;

To minimise disruption to the teaching and learning of students;

To promote WRL as part of the learning entitlement for all students at KS4.

Principles

The aims for work related learning focus on the provision the school makes for opportunities for students to prepare for adult and working life. These include:

to improve educational standards through using contexts that improve motivation and attainment for all students;

to ensure that students follow courses and programmes which are appropriate to their longer term aspirations and needs;

to improve students' understanding of the world of work and its demands;

to increase access and choice for all students;

to improve the transition of students from school to adult and working life.

The key objectives for work related learning are:

to raise levels of attainment through high quality work- related learning for all students; to develop a range of opportunities which enhance the curriculum;

to promote greater awareness for students about the world of work, the development of key skills and employability;

to develop a range of appropriate and relevant activities which assist in raising all students' aspirations and achievement and which are of the highest possible quality and are regularly monitored;

Work Related Learning Policy

to promote awareness and understanding of work, industry, the economy and community;
to relate skills attitudes, concepts and knowledge learned in school to applications in the wider world;
to develop students' personal and social skills in relationships in a range of contexts;
to provide students with informed and impartial guidance on the choices available for education, training and employment as well as other interests;
to improve employability through work related learning; to develop effective links with key partners and local industry.

The WRL Policy will embrace the principles of the Equality Policy, Inclusion Policy and Curriculum Policy.
