

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

The KS1 children of Plover Primary recently completed their learning expedition about real life heroes.

My dad is helpful.
My dad is kind.
My dad has a great mind.
My dad's hearts full of love.
My dad is long.
My dad is strong.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

A KS1 learning expedition about real life heroes.

Click on the QR codes below to see our learning journey in full!

Expedition website

KS1 children's speeches

KS1 children's art and hero poem videos

KS1 children's digital postcards

My hero is reasonable.
My hero is brave.
My hero is energetic.
My hero is kind.
My hero is listen.
My hero is reasonable.
My hero is my mum.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

A KS1 learning expedition about real life heroes.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

APPRECIATION

I appreciate forces officers they point peeps into the Ruben

PLEDGE

I pludge to help my foster carter with her shopping so she can do fostering in the community R

This is a learning expedition by the KS1 children from Plover School. All artwork and written work created by the children. Poster design and production by XP Trust Comms Crew: comms@xptrust.org

ploverschool.co.uk | #LovePlover | xptrust.org

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

APPRECIATION

I appreciate Missa need because he helps with my fories NELSON

PLEDGE

I pludge to help old people with work because they are my community. Nelly

This is a learning expedition by the KS1 children from Plover School. All artwork and written work created by the children. Poster design and production by XP Trust Comms Crew: comms@xptrust.org

ploverschool.co.uk | #LovePlover | xptrust.org

We would like you, our local community, to share your appreciations and make a pledge.

Click on this QR code to make your public pledge and become a local hero!

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

The KS1 children of Plover Primary recently completed their learning expedition about real life heroes.

My real life hero is a firefighter. They are kind. They are smart. They are the best.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

A KS1 learning expedition about real life heroes.

Click on the QR codes below to see our learning journey in full!

Expedition website

KS1 children's speeches

KS1 children's art and hero poem videos

KS1 children's digital postcards

My family are my heroes. Hero are here to help. Energetic smile. Respected by people. Optimistic people.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

A KS1 learning expedition about real life heroes.

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

APPRECIATION

I appreciate the firemen because they serve the people and they protect them from fire.

Charlotte

PLEDGE

I pledge to be a firefighter and help people. I will keep my house safe and I will help people who are in trouble.

This is a learning expedition by the KS1 children from Plover School. All artwork and written work created by the children. Poster design and production by XP Trust Comms Crew: comms@xptrust.org

ploverschool.co.uk | #LovePlover | xptrust.org

What will I do to be a hero in my community?

APPRECIATION

I would like to appreciate the firemen because they rescue cats and birds from big fires. They also rescue people from smoking and burning houses.

Ellis

PLEDGE

I pledge to keep Doncaster clean when I go and work. I will put my mums always on and put her in the bins.

Manic

This is a learning expedition by the KS1 children from Plover School. All artwork and written work created by the children. Poster design and production by XP Trust Comms Crew: comms@xptrust.org

ploverschool.co.uk | #LovePlover | xptrust.org

We would like you, our local community, to share your appreciations and make a pledge.

Click on this QR code to make your public pledge and become a local hero!