

Key subjects we will be studying Science - Changing States Art - Clay Sculpture History - Crime and Punishment on Tudor Times	 www.ploverschool.co.uk	Visits/Experts TBC
Key texts we will be reading Terrifying Tudors by Terry Deary Treason by Berlie Doherty	Does the punishment always fit the crime? Year 5 and 6	Our final product A community graffiti project displayed at Intake Community Library
Key dates this term at Plover Tues - 06.01.26 - Tudor dress-up banquet themed lunch Weds 25.02.26 - Field work in the community Thurs 26.02.26 - Family learning Thurs 12.03.26 - Presentation of Learning

Home Learning Activities

We look forward to seeing your home learning.
For every piece of home learning, you will receive 10 crew coins!

English	Maths	Expedition
Create a story based on crime and punishment.	Design an anchor chart based on fractions	Create a timeline of your life so far - include dates and important events
Create a fact file based on Henry VIII	Y6 to access the revision website from the blog.	Imagine you have seen a public execution, write a witness statement.
Create a glossary of Tudor terms	Create a graph to show how crime statistics have changed over the years.	Create a piece of artwork in the style of Hans Holbein.
Create a Tudor mind map	Create your own murder mystery game based on Cluedo- use your knowledge of area and perimeter to help design the rooms.	Create a Tudor Rose
Create a magic spell and write the instructions for it.	Go onto TTRS - can you beat your fastest score?	Research a Tudor punishment