Meeting National Curriculum requirements for swimming and water safety.

Priority should always be given to ensuring that pupils can perform safe self-rescue even if they do not fully meet the first two requirements of the National Curriculum programme of study

Question	Stats:	Further context Relative to local challenges
What percentage of your current Year 6 cohort can swim competently, confidently and proficiently over a distance of at least 25 metres?	80.65%	80.65% - Majority of students bring swim costumes every session but there are some children that will forget some days and that will put the children behind. Also, parents do not continue taking their children swimming in their own time and that will also affect the child's swimming as the first few sessions the instructors seem to be recapping previous years learning etc.

What percentage of your current Year 6 cohort can use a range of strokes effectively [for example, front crawl, backstroke, and breaststroke]?	51.61%	51.61% - Most students can swim competently but just over half the students know every stroke. Some children can demonstrate the front crawl and breaststroke.
What percentage of your current Year 6 cohort are able to perform safe self-rescue in different water-based situations?	80%	80% - Most children within year 6 know the importance of water safety and have been taught the basics in safe self rescue.

If your schools swimming data is below national expectation, you can choose to use the Primary PE and sport premium to provide additional top-up sessions for those pupils that did not meet National Curriculum requirements after the completion of core lessons. Have you done this?	No
Have you provided CPD to improve the knowledge and confidence of staff to be able to teach swimming and water safety?	No	Instructors from Atherton Leisure Centre teach the children at Portway.
