WORLD BOOK WEEK

To mark the 20th anniversary of Harry Potter, Rokeby transformed into Hogwarts for our World Book Week celebration. It was a jam packed week of activities and the displays around school were incredible! Activities included a Year 8 Spelling Bee, a film screening of the Philosopher's Stone, a book fair, a World Book Day quiz and a celebratory feast. The week finished with the 'big reveal' of Rokeby's Big Read, when every member of staff, student and Governor was given a copy of this year's chosen book, the Alchemyst by Michael Scott.

From left to right: congratulations to Samiul (8K) who won the Spelling Bee; a cinema experience with popcorn at the screening of the Philosopher's Stone; staff dressed in Harry Potter themed costumes; the book fair when every student was given a £1 book token and could buy books at reduced cost; this year's Big Read, the Alchemyst by Michael Scott; the celebratory feast when selected students were invited to celebrate their progress in Accelerated Reader.
