

Instrumental Music Lessons at Shevington High School

As part of the opportunities offered to pupils to ensure high quality performances, we have a range of vocal and instrumental lessons on offer. These are supplied by Wigan ITP (Instrumental Tuition Providers), and all lesson and teachers are of the highest standard. Please find information in this letter which will help you to understand the organisation of this tuition and the pricing structure.

Who will provide the tuition?

Specialist instrumental music teachers visit school every week to teach pupils. These teachers are deployed by Wigan Council's Music Service.

Which Instrument?

Lessons are available on almost every musical instrument including:

- Brass (trumpets, trombones etc.)
- Woodwind (clarinets, flutes, saxophones etc.)
- Orchestral Strings (violin, viola, cello, double bass)
- Guitar
- Piano
- Electronic keyboard
- Drums
- Voice

What about buying / hiring an instrument?

Wigan Music Service operates an Instrument Hire Scheme through which parents can arrange hire of an instrument for a term or for a whole year. For information please contact the Music Service on 01942 776169 or visit www.wigan.gov.uk/musicservice
