

1	Equality	having equal opportunities and rights. It is being treated fairly. It also means being able and supported to reach your potential.	11	Career	An occupation undertaken for a significant period of a person's life and with opportunities for progress.
2	Inequality	when people aren't given equal opportunities and rights. They are treated unfairly and experience discrimination	12	Ambition	Desire and determination to achieve success.
3	Equality Act 2010	It makes it law that every private, public and voluntary sector must not discriminate against employees and service users because of particular characteristics	13	Engineering	The branch of science and technology concerned with the design, building, and use of engines, machines, and structures.
4	Prejudice	Preconceived opinion that is not based on reason or actual experience	14	Catering and hospitality	The industry of being friendly and welcoming to guests or visitors. Providing food and drinks in pubs, restaurants, accommodation, holiday centres.
5	Stereotype	A fixed idea or image that many people have of a particular person or thing, but which is often not true in reality	15	Construction industry	Diverse industry that includes activities ranging from mining, quarrying and forestry to the construction of infrastructure and buildings.
6	Employment sector	Different areas that jobs fit into	16	Retail sector	The selling of goods or services to consumers. Examples include shops, department stores, supermarkets, market stalls, door-to-door salespeople and internet retailers.
7	Volunteering	Work for an organisation without being paid	17	Healthcare	Business of providing medical services, manufacturing medical equipment or drugs, or otherwise facilitating the provision of healthcare to patients.
8	Citizenship	Having respect for others and their property · knowing your rights and respecting the rights of others	18	Public Services sector	Jobs in government offered services that help all members of a community. Examples include the military, police, education, waste management and other local council positions
9	Charity	An organisation set up to provide help and raise money for those in need.	19	Finance sector	This industry provides financial services and includes banking, mortgages, credit cards, payment services, tax preparation and planning, accounting, and investing.

10	Society	people living together in an ordered community.	20	Recruitment sector	Agencies that act as the liaison between businesses and candidates, helping companies source and hire talent, and helping job seekers find jobs