

Popular books/ Authors

These are rough guide lines. Some are for children to read themselves, but children LOVE to be read to. Let them experience stories beyond their reading ability to develop their vocabulary and use of language. A DVD does NOT develop this!

Nursery rhymes**

Traditional tales (not Disney DVDs)

Gorilla

Dear Zoo

The Very Hungry Caterpillar

The Jolly Postman

Julia Donaldson books

Charlie and Lola stories

Spot

Dogger

Dr Seuss

Where the Wild Things Are

Little Princess Stories

We're going on a Bear Hunt

The Tiger Who Came to Tea

Flat Stanley

Clarice Bean

Oliver Jeffers books

David Wiesner books

Emily Gravett books

Dick King Smith books

Shirley Hughes books

Where's Wally? (Good for scanning skills)

Rainbow Magic series

Jill Murphy books

Animal Rescue books (e.g. Merlin the Homeless Foal)

Megan McDonald –Judy Moody stories

Roald Dahl books

Laurence Anholt books

Jeremy Strong books

Andrew Stanton Mr Gum books

Hollyweb books (e.g. Dog Magic)

Beast Quest

Horrid Henry

Diary of a Wimpy Kid

David Walliams books

Jacqueline Wilson books

Michael Morpurgo books

Tolkien books

Terry Pratchett books

Harry Potter stories

Tom Gates stories

Stig of the Dump

Goodnight Mr Tom

Try: www.lovereadings.co.uk

www.literacytrust.org.uk

