

#ActuallyHaringey Autism Hub

Who we are

#ActuallyHaringey is an early help provision enabling autistic adults to live independent, fulfilling lives within their community.

#ActuallyHaringey is an autism hub run by a small in-house team. We provide a wide range of information, guidance and support options. Currently, we are running as both an online service and in-person service which is based at the Chad Gordon Campus.

What we do

We can currently support autistic adults who are:

1 Struggling with isolation.

3 Interested in online or face to face social activities.

5 Would like to be a part of our Coproduction groups.

2 Looking to meet people, and be part of our community.

4 Would like general information, advice and guidance.

6 Peer support/ friendship groups.

How to make a referral

If you would like to make a referral on someone's behalf or if someone would like to self-refer to our service, please follow to link below to our referral form:

#ActuallyHaringey Referral Form

Alternatively, if you have any queries, please email us at:

autismhub@haringey.gov.uk

