

Report on Year 7 Parent Questionnaire November 2022

- Parent/ Guardian return: 64% of families responded to this questionnaire i.e. 150 returns from 235 families.
- The parent questionnaire is based on an online questionnaire used by Ofsted to gather the views of parents/carers on their child's school, though the survey also invites feedback on spiritual, moral and faith development.

The results of the survey are summarised below.

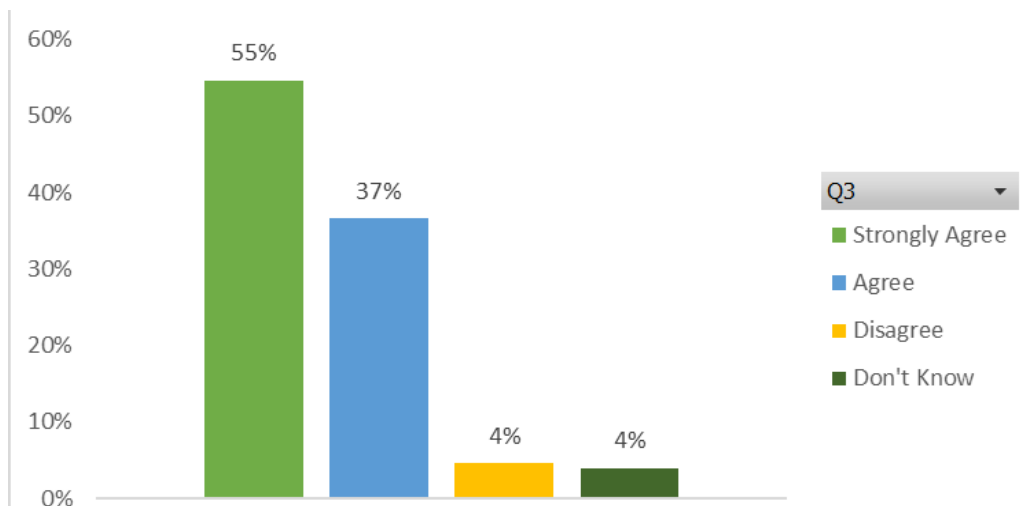

Q1. My child is happy at this school.

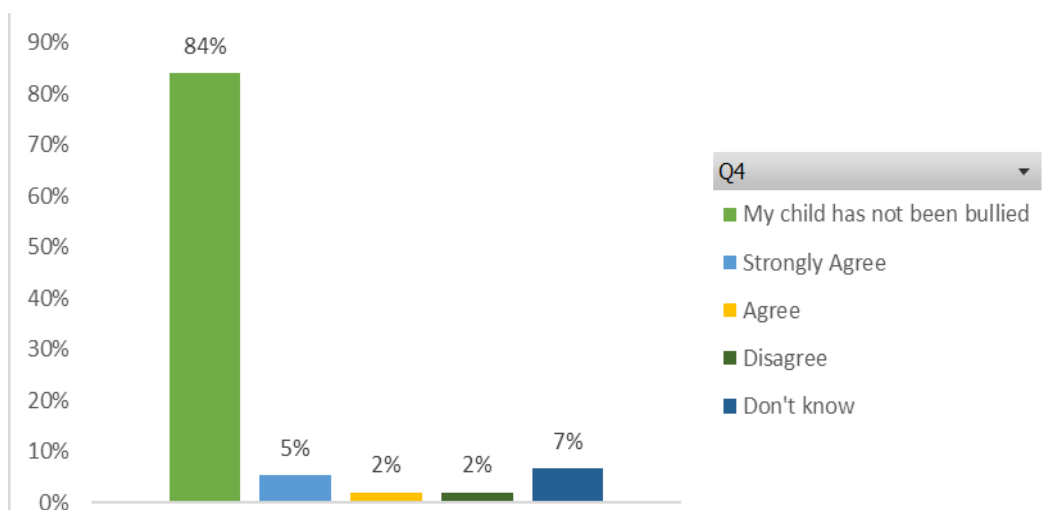

Q2. My child feels safe at this school.

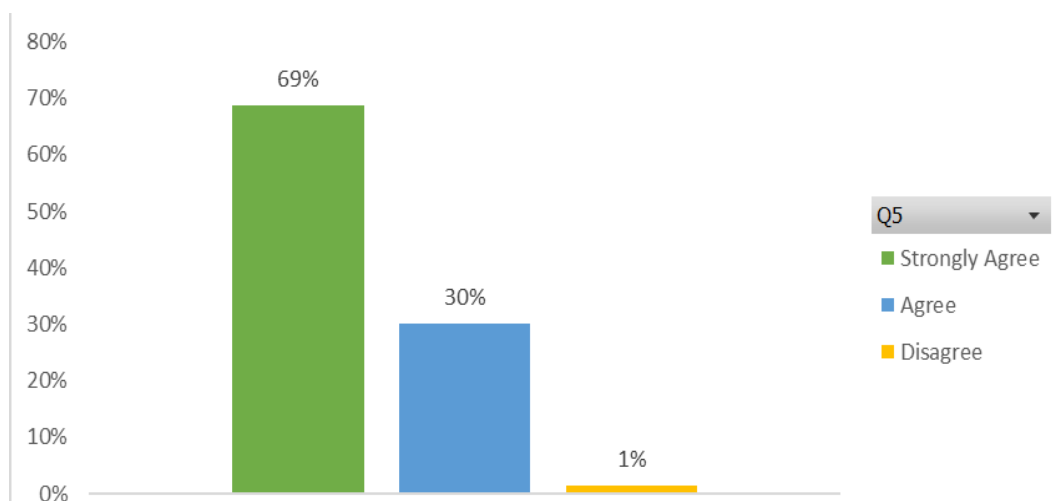

Q3. The school makes sure its pupils are well behaved.

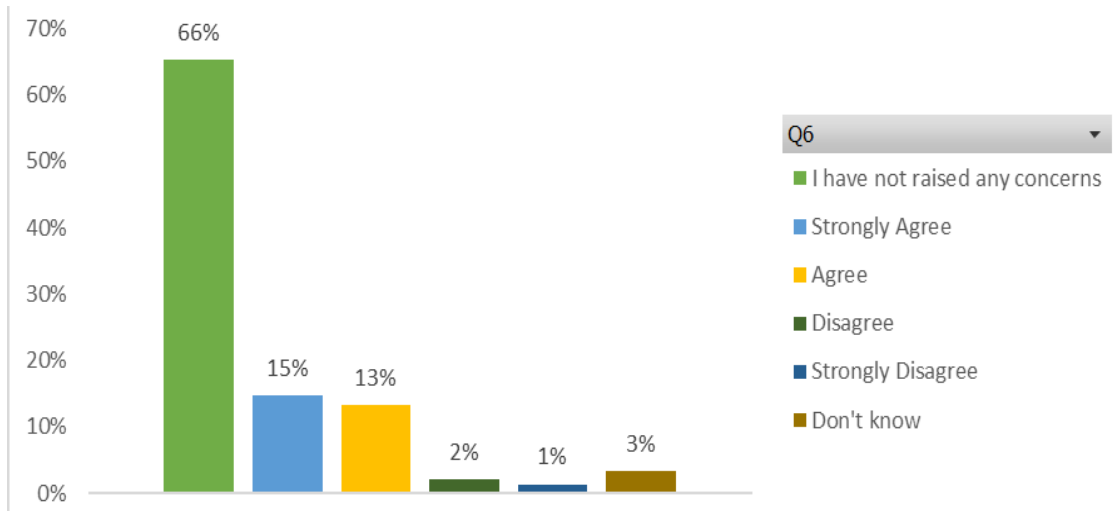

Q4. My child has been bullied and the school dealt with the bullying quickly and effectively.

Q5. The school makes me aware of what my child will learn during the year.

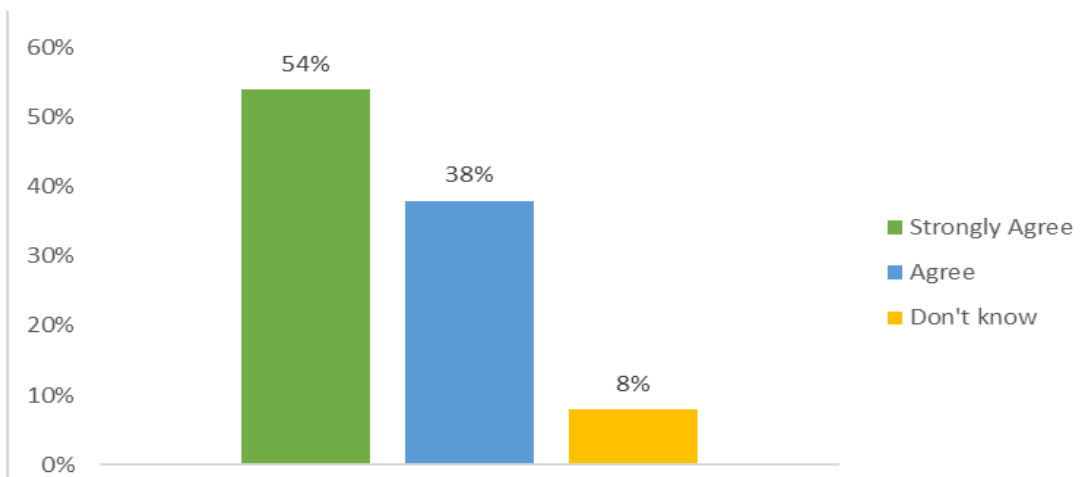

Q6. When I have raised concerns with the school they have been dealt with properly.

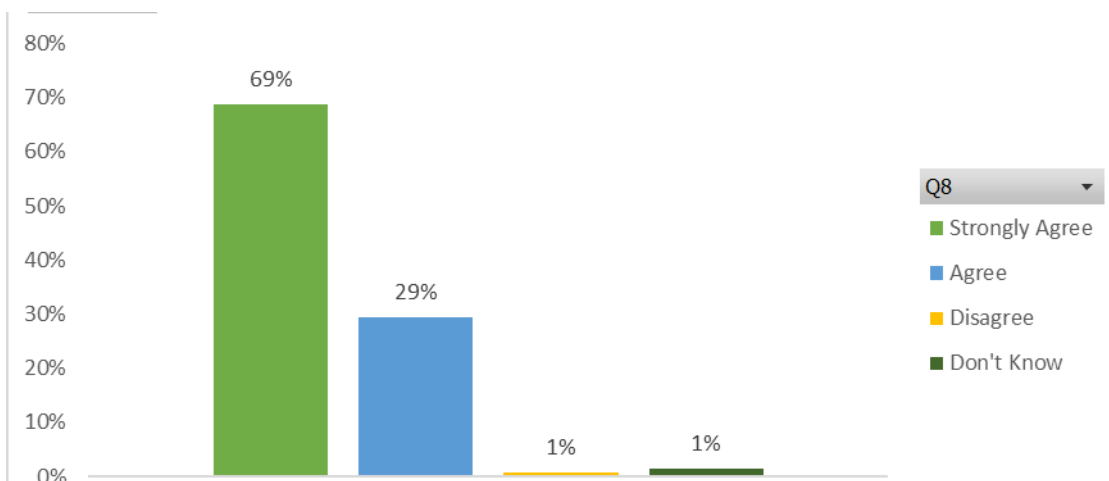

Q7. My child has SEND (special education needs and/or disabilities), and the school gives them the support they need to succeed.

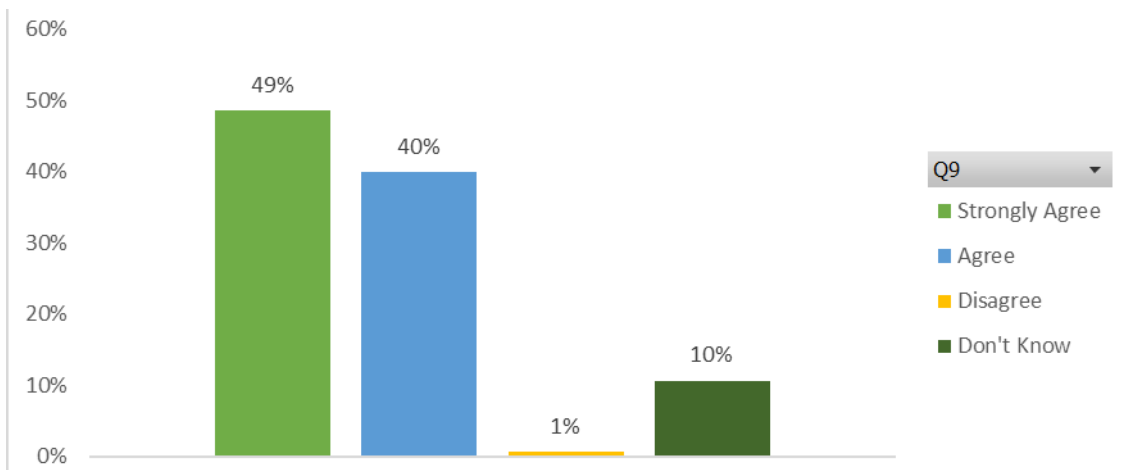

Below breakdown includes responses from 13 parents whose child has SEND and answered the question (3 parents did not).

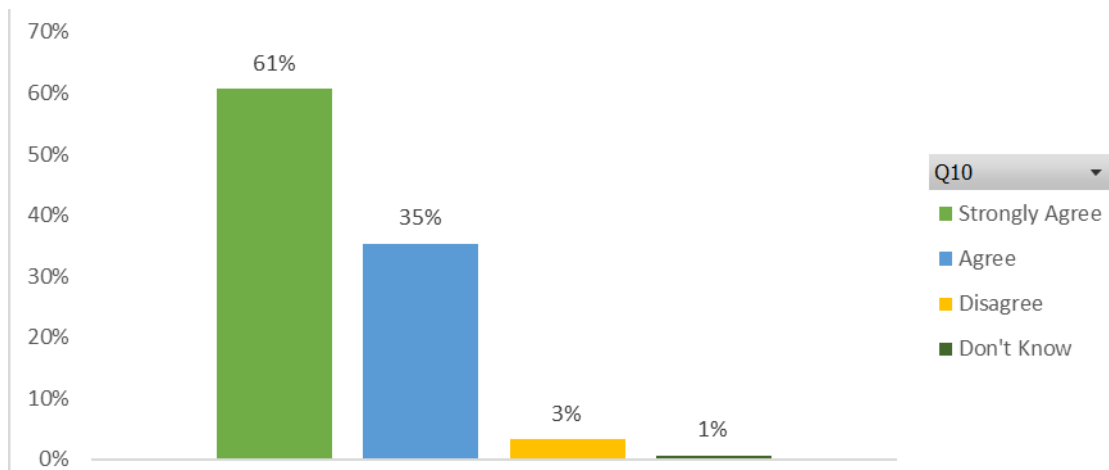

Q8. The school has high expectations for my child.

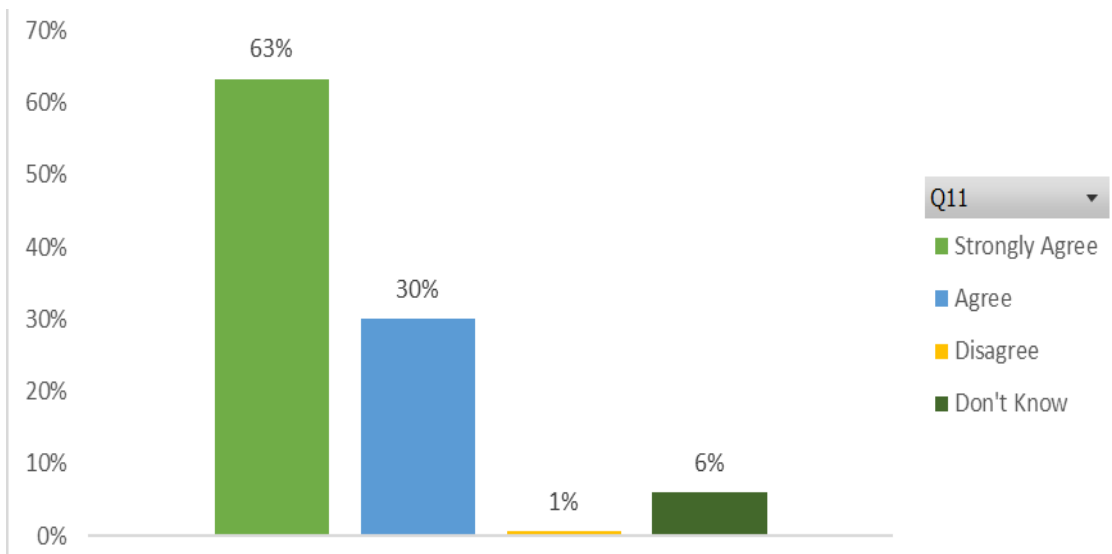

Q9. My child does well at this school.

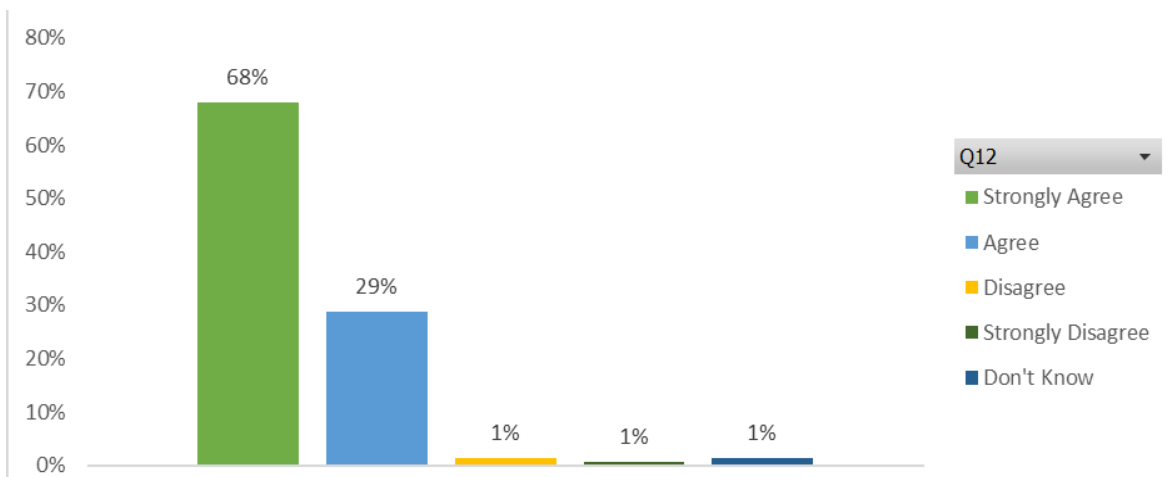

Q10. There is a good range of subjects available to my child at this school.

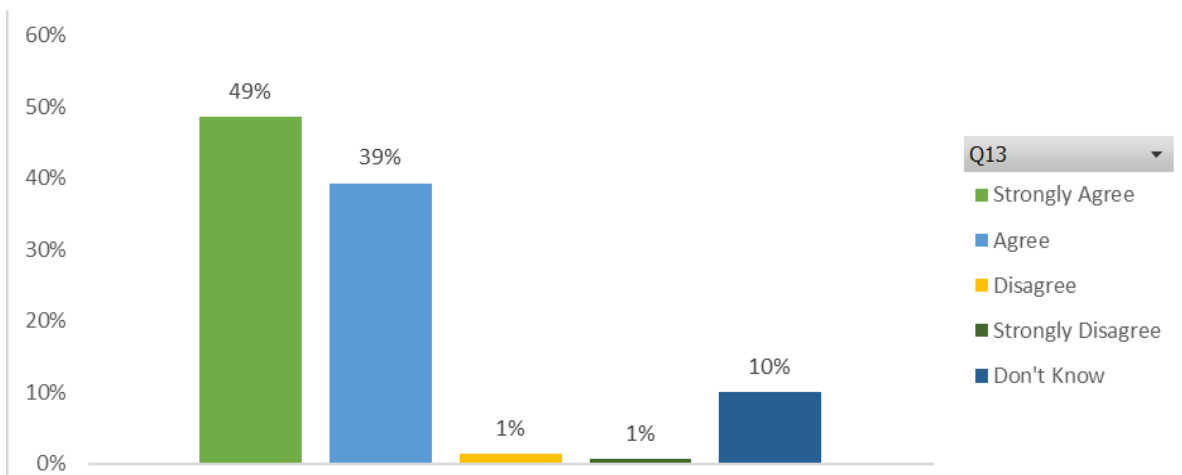

Q11. The school actively promotes reading for pleasure.

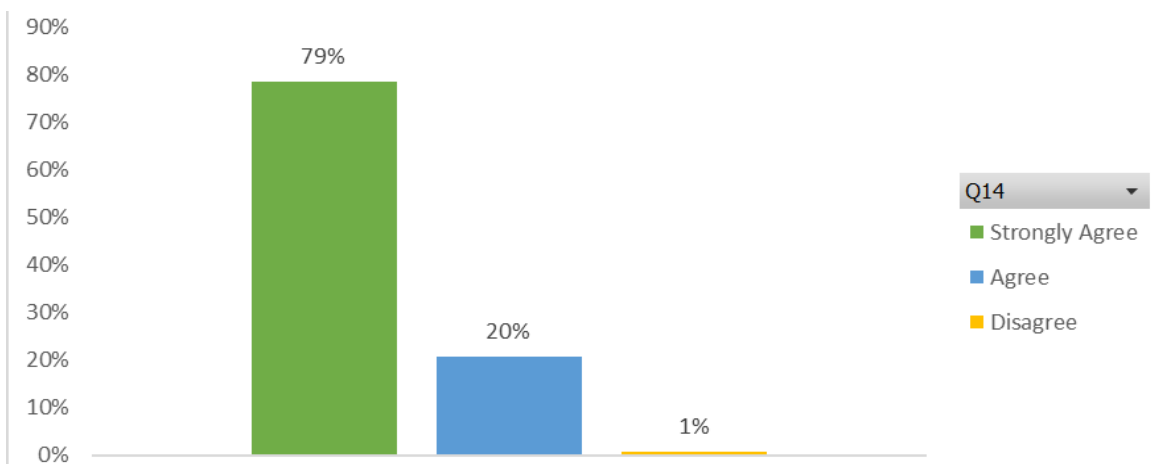

Q12. My child can take part in clubs and activities at this school.

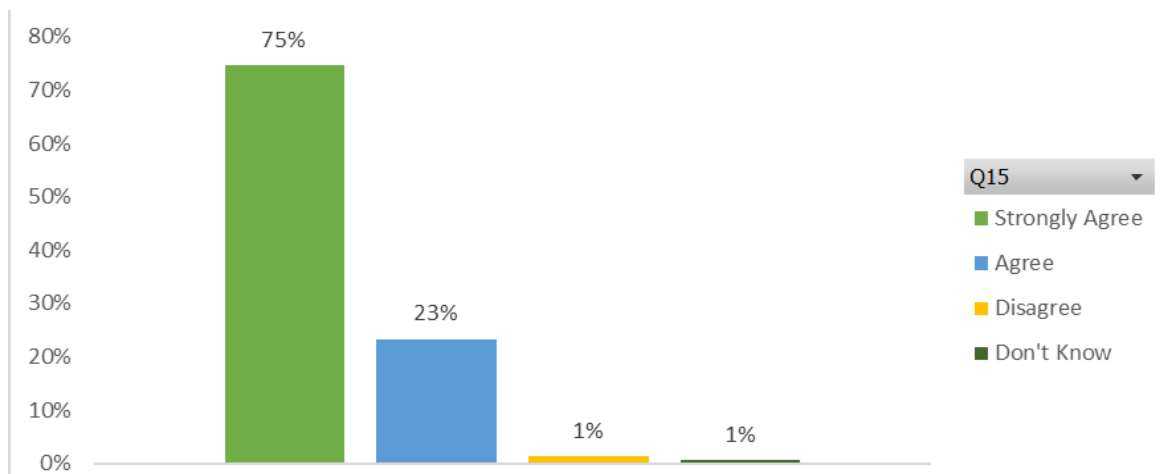

Q13. The school supports my child's wider personal development.

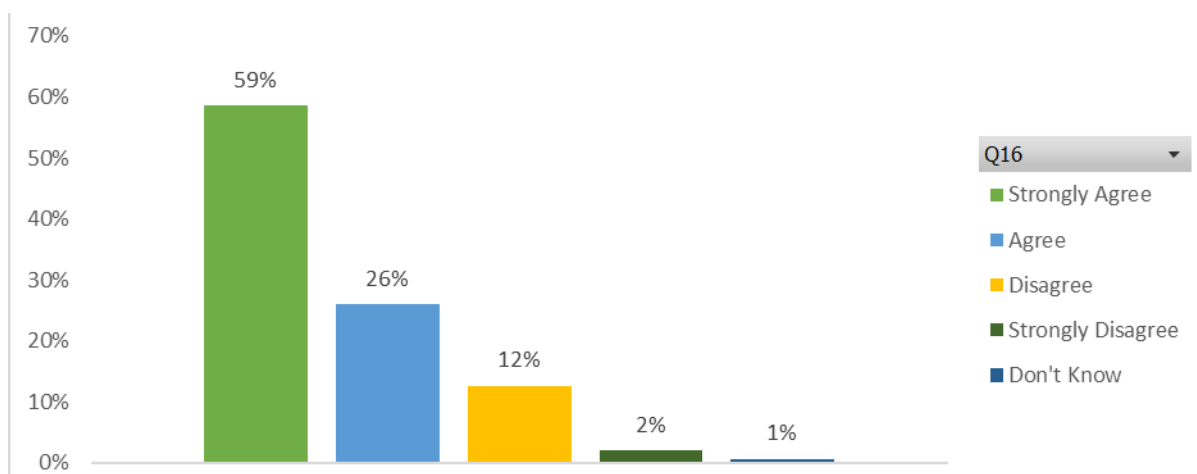

Q14. I am happy in the way the school develops and encourages the development of the Catholic faith.

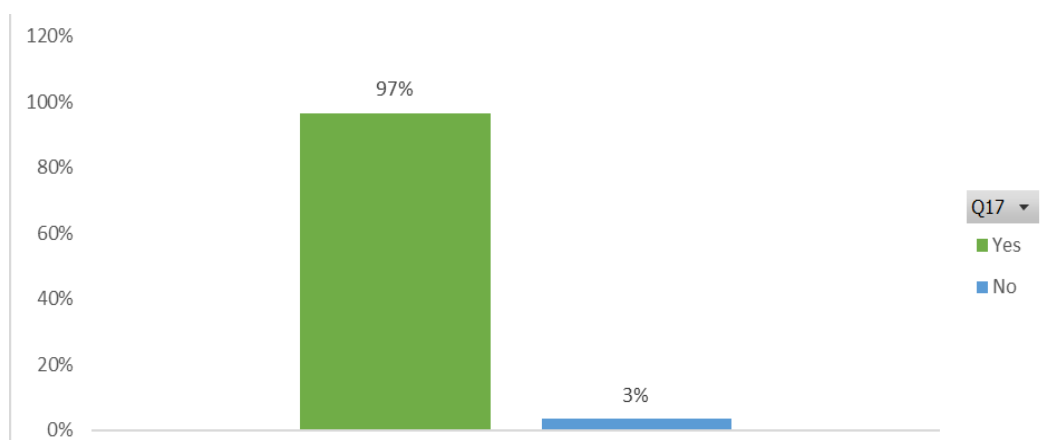

Q15. This school provides well for the moral and spiritual development of my child.

Q16. My child had a smooth and successful transition from primary school.

Q17. I would recommend this school to another parent.

Parents were asked whether they would recommend this school to another parent. Of the 150 parents that responded to the questionnaire all responded as yes with the exception of five.

The questionnaire provides parents with the opportunity to expand on any responses to questions. The school has followed up on all such queries directly with parents.

Parent comments include:

- We are very grateful for everything the school does. It is indeed a great school.
- My son comes home tired but excited from school and I thank you all for the great care and effort put towards the benefit of our children.
- We are extremely happy with the school. There seems to be a culture of helpfulness and care, not only from the teachers and staff but also from older children. This has made the transition easy and successful. When we had concerns, these were dealt with quickly. We are also impressed and really pleased with what has been set up for our son to help with his dyslexia so thank you very much.
- My son is having a wonderful first term at Trinity. He is enjoying all aspects and is very happy. It was beneficial to have a meeting, both parents and child together before he started, and also great correspondence from Mrs McNamara ensuring a smooth transition for my son.
- My son has had a smooth transition to secondary school. He is happy. I would, and do, recommend this school to other parents.
- To date, we are very happy with TCHS. The ethos of the school and the expectation that all children strive to be the best that they can be is refreshing. The broad range of extra-curricular activities is fantastic and the high standards of the school is very commendable.
- Thank you for taking care of my daughter. I appreciate receiving positive feedback through satchel.
- I am so pleased with how my daughter has adapted to high school. This is a credit to the school and excellent teaching staff.
- My son is very happy and has made friends. We are super pleased with the school, thanks a lot.
- Overall we are very happy with this school. Expectations are high and children are given the means to achieve well. I would happily recommend this school to others and my child is happy here.
- Transition from Y6 to Y7 has been very smooth and my son has settled in extremely well.
- We are very happy with Trinity School and grateful for the excellent education our son and daughter are receiving especially in these difficult and challenging times for schools and really appreciate all you do.
- I am a big supporter of the school. My children have always appreciated the high standards set by the school because the expectations are clear and similar to the ethos we share at home.
