

PC Jo Kerly

is our Children and Young Person's Officer within the Epping Forest District

The role of the Children and Young Persons officer is to seek to safeguard and divert children and young people away from negative behaviour with collaborative working with partners. The role also includes identifying and resolving issues involving young people within the community who are at risk.

From safeguarding children and young people - To working with partners to identify children and young people at risk - To resolving issues involving young people within the community.

PC Kerly is based at Loughton Police Officer and if you could like to contact her, please go through Mr J Doherty

