Destinations:

Following this year's A Level results, our students are progressing to a wide range of universities and courses across the UK. Many are heading to Russell Group universities, including UCL, University of Nottingham, University of Warwick, University of Leeds, University of Sheffield, University of Bristol, University of Liverpool, University of Birmingham, King's College London, and the University of Oxford, reflecting strong academic ambition. Others are choosing highly respected institutions such as Queen Mary University of London, Aston University, City, University of London, and Nottingham Trent University. Students will be studying a diverse array of subjects, from traditional academic fields like Medicine, Law, Economics, English Literature, Mathematics, and Engineering, to creative disciplines including Graphic Design, Games Design, Journalism, and Communication & Media.

"Congratulations to all of our students"
