	Happy To Be Me	Come Fly With Me, Asia	Help Is At Hand	What On Earth...?
	Children will learn more about themselves under the headings: Who Am I? eyes, ears, fingers, toes, mouths and noses, similarities and differences, who's in my family? and belonging. They will discover what makes them unique, while at the same time learning to appreciate how they are connected to others, not only by the way they look, but also through shared experiences. They will learn about their senses with a particular focus on how we communicate.	Children will go on a magic carpet ride to explore and investigate Asian cultures including: China, India, Russia and Egypt. They will listen to stories and will find out about traditional dress, food, music, dance and traditions.	Children will learn about the variety of ways in which people help them and how they can help others under the headings: help is at home, help is at school, police, fire, ambulance, doctors and nurses, other helpers and helping others. They will find out about service-led roles within the community, as well as identifying ways in which they can help those in need by sharing their time and resources.	Children will learn about the diversity found within our World, under the headings: living things, pretty things, big things, small things, old things and new things. They will gain an appreciation of the wonder of the living World: rich in variety and form. This should lead to an understanding of the need to look after things, however seemingly small and insignificant.
