

KS4 History

ABDULLA AWAN

Abdullah was perhaps the most improved student in history. He started the GCSE course as a student who was not the most diligent. He ended the course as someone who would actively seek out additional support. If ever he missed a lesson he would seek me out for a one to one overview. It is not a surprise to find him in my A-level class and I look forward to his further success.

