

Musical Theatre & Drama

In memory of Geoff Abbott

MATTHEW GORDON-YULE

Matthew made his mark on the drama department only a few short years ago, but he has certainly left a lasting impression. Anyone who has seen Matthew perform, will agree with me when I say he is a very gifted and talented individual. It has been an absolute pleasure to watch him refine and develop his skills as an actor and Musical Theatre performer. Matthew is a born entertainer and I have been amazed at how he throws himself into each and every role - from 'Fagin' to our leading role as 'The Beast' in last year's musical. He has blown me away by his beautiful singing voice and his sheer dedication to the arts. Matthew you will be missed - thank you for sharing your inspiring talent with us!
