

Year 7 Olympic Value Award for Friendship

CONNOR
ELLISON

Connor has shown that he is a very caring, considerate friend who is always there to help a friend. He takes initiative to speak to members of staff when he knows a friend needs help and always tries to make everyone feel included, especially at social times. He is a valuable member of his tutor group and always approaches situations with a very mature attitude. He has made the most of opportunities that have come his way and always tries his best.
