

Leadership & Demonstrating School Values

FLOGERTA SHEHI

Flogerta is a student who comes into school and gives everything she has to school everyday and understands the value of education, she enjoys learning new skills. She is conscientious, hardworking, friendly and inclusive to all her peers. She is helpful, kind and supportive to those students in her classes and is everything we look for as a leader. Flogerta, thank you for being such a fantastic student during my time as your head of year, I wish you every success in your future.
