

KS5 Economics

SEAN McMAHON

Sean was a consistently good student over the 2 years in terms of attendance, effort and resilience. Consistently met deadlines and always tried his best. This paid off for him (A grade). In Year 13 he developed a really good understanding of the topics enabling him to consistently achieve well in his extended writing - a significant part of A-level assessment. He is an example of how hard work and determination reap rewards in the end.