

KS4 Technology

In memory of Dean Henderson

MADDY FORSTER

Maddy was a conscientious and hardworking student from the start of the course, showing a genuine love for both the practical side of the course and was equally as enthusiastic about the theory of nutrition. Maddy made some amazing dishes throughout the course, trialling dishes in her own time to ensure they met her own high standards. She was a pleasure to teach and an amazing role model for the others in the class.