

Job of the Week

Charity Week Edition

CHARITY FUNDRAISER

Charity Fundraisers work to encourage donations to a charity. They can work to gain individual or business sponsorships to aid their charity of choice. Charity Fundraisers have to be incredibly creative to develop new ideas to raise funds through organising events, corporate fundraising, direct marketing and social media campaigns. This week Y12 are Volunteering as Charity Fundraisers for the MANUP? Charity—supporting Men’s Mental Health—can you help?

skills

- Charismatic outgoing personality
- Passion for the Charitable cause
- Ability to influence others
- Excellent Communication Skills
- Presentation skills
- Organisation Skills
- Ability to work under pressure
- Budget Management skills
- Creativity
- Research skills

Key Info

salary

Starting Salary: £15,000—£22,000
Senior Positions: £25k—£40k
Directors: £60,000+

Qualifications

No set qualifications a Degree in a relevant subject is useful:
Business, Marketing, Media, Public Relations

Routes

Volunteer First for experience
Experience in Advertising, Events, Sales or Finance
Relevant Degree

Related Careers

Events Manager, Charity Director, Grants Officer, Arts Administrator

Working Hours

35—40 hours per week
Home or Office based
Out of hours travel for events

Get Involved - Charity Week

Share Information (link below)
Support the Events
Volunteer or Donate

More info: UNIFROG

National Careers
Service

School
Website

Our MANUP
JustGiving
Page

