

LESSON ROUTINES

Lessons start as soon as the bell rings.
Staff to greet students at the door of the classroom.

Students must stand behind allocated seat in the seating plan and sit when instructed by class teacher.
Teachers to check equipment & uniform.

When the teacher addresses the class, students must be silent. The teacher should not accept any students talking when they are talking.

The teacher must use the lesson rewards and sanctions process as agreed in the Behaviour Policy.

Students must stand behind desks at the end of the lesson in silence before being dismissed.

Students are dismissed after the bell has sounded. Teachers must ensure dismissal is orderly and they are present in corridors during lesson changeover.

